

Seven days of early dance in exclusive interaction with the renowned Ringve International Summer Course in Early Music – a part of the St. Olav Festival in Trondheim.

The course includes a daily warm up and dance class based on historical dance techniques, repertoire classes, Feuillet notation, master classes in cooperation with the music course, evening country dance classes, daily concerts and a student performance in Trondheim.

Level: Dancers, dance students and dance teachers in primary school, lower and upper secondary school, high school and higher performing arts education are welcomed. Parts of the course will require an advanced technical level in dance.

Location: Sund folkehøgskole at Inderøy, about 100 km north of Trondheim.

Time: July 23–29, 2018. Recommended travel days: July 22 and 30.

Course fee and housing

Active participants: NOK 2.500 per person

Passive participants: NOK 1.250 per person

Room and full board: NOK 4.000/5.300 (double/single room)

Contact

Course administrator: Tore Aaen Aune, phone: +47 404 04 584, e-mail: tore.aune@olavsfestdagene.no

Dance teacher: Elizabeth Svarstad, phone: +47 958 87 944, e-mail: elizabethsvarstad@me.com

Please visit the Ringve International Summer Course website for more information and application:
www.ringvecourse.no

Deadline for application: May 1, 2018.

Olavsfestdagene

Adresseavisen

SpareBank  SMN

 E.C. DAHLS EIENDOM